

ANTONIO CASTILLO TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT MANAGER AT FELLOWES

BACKGROUND

Antonio Castillo is a senior executive and thought leader with nearly three decades of experience in corporate learning. Currently on staff with Fellowes Incorporated as the Training and Development Manager, Antonio has partnered previously with leading world-wide organizations, such as Boeing, Roche, Eli Lilly, UGN, ZF Services, Illinois Tool Works (ITW), Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, Safeway Incorporated, National Hispanic Sales Network and E-Women networking.

Antonio is familiar with the challenges faced by today's high-profile companies and supports development leaders in the strategy, design and implementation of development training initiatives, both domestically and internationally.

He has held positions in sales and marketing with ITW; marketing and product development with Videojet; and sales product development and management consulting and training with ACME Packaging.

Antonio draws upon the knowledge and perspective gained from 28 years of "real-world" experience as a leader, manager, entrepreneur and consultant.

SKILLS & EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Psychology/OD and Theater from Northwestern University.
- Extensive experience in Emotional Management, Voice Dialogue, Change Management and Advanced Facilitation.
- Training and certification in multiple tools and techniques, including InsideOut Coaching and MBTI.
- Professional actor under the name Tony Castillo. Member of SAG, AFTRA and AEA.

SPECIALTIES:

- Public Speaking
- Leadership Development
- Talent Management
- Organizational Design
- Internal Consulting
- Executive Coaching
- Mentoring
- Succession Planning
- Training Program Design and Facilitation
- E-Learning & Webinar
- 360 Degree
- Voice Dialogue

"Antonio's enthusiasm and energetic approach to facilitating sales and management development training programs has been extremely beneficial in helping our people understand how to build winning and long-lasting business relationships, reaching their goals, and staying motivated and focused to achieve unlimited potential." — Delta Dental, MI

